

Casa Amiga Partnership

USLA is partnering with Casa Amiga for a Fall 2010 Donation drive. Casa Amiga, a domestic violence shelter and violence prevention outreach program, is a well-known organization in Juarez, Mexico. With increased violence in recent years, Juarez is now the murder capital of the hemisphere. Now more than ever, collaboration is needed to support violence prevention in Juarez.

Here's how you can help:

1. Help support the Dr. Kathleen "Kathy" Staudt Special Collection. Casa Amiga has identified the need for more scholarly resources in helping support domestic violence victims. Dr. Staudt is a recognized scholar in this area, and has generously agreed to donate numerous copies of her work. However, Casa Amiga is still in need of other articles and books, which are listed below (please scroll down).
2. Donate story books for Casa Amiga through USLA's Amazon.com registry (see Easy Ways to Help for the link to our registry). All books will be mailed to USLA in Colorado, and shipped as a group to El Paso.
3. Donate cash using Pay Pal (see Easy Ways to Help). The money will be used to support the computer project at Casa Amiga and for purchasing psychological materials identified as useful by Casa Amiga. Just email us at usla@service-usla.org to let us know the amount you have donated and put "Casa Amiga" in the subject line.
4. Donate school/art supplies and paper, story books/Spanish-English dictionaries, blankets, preschool toys, board games, or folding tables. If you live in the El Paso area, please contact Moira Murphy at mm@mpmglobalpartners.com to arrange pick up. If you live in Colorado, please email us at usla@service-usla.org for pick-up.

If you would like a receipt for your tax-deductible donation, or would like to be part of our mailing list, please contact us at usla@service-usla.org.

Dr. Kathleen “Kathy” Staudt Special Collection Wish List:

(If you see an article in a journal, please buy the entire journal issue, as it is not possible to donate separate articles)
